8. UPDATES ON ACTIONS FROM PREVIOUS MEETINGS

8.1 240524/4/1 – Business Plan – The plan was needed to secure funding. Will do another if needed to secure funding in the future. NOTED

8.2 230906/11/c – Planning Training – Cllr Houghton had agreed to attend the January training with LALC, but the training was postponed. All councillors to look to attend the next training session. Cllr Scholfield preferred to wait for training until after the new planning rules being suggested by the government are announced. Cllr Ramsbottom is interested in attending ONGOING

ACTION - Clerk to follow and inform Councillors of developments

8.3 241211/9 – Weekly Planning Lists – Cllr Birtwistle investigated the weekly list being emailed directly to the clerk by RVBC and reported that this is not something they do.

The Council asked Cllr Birtwistle to chase it again. ONGOING

ACTION - Cllr Birtwistle to follow up, again

8.4 241211/15a – Insurance – Clerk reported that the insurance is really the responsibility of the RFO, as the clerk does not have access to investigate this with the insurers. The council asked that the Clerk investigate the insurance cover and the possibility of us being over insured. Cllr Scholfield provided the council with month of insurance renewal (November 25) with 140 houses and 277 Residents ONGOING

ACTION – Clerk to investigate

8.5 241211/15c – Websites and Emails – Cllr Birtwistle reported that he had investigated this, and it is not something that RVBC offer. To ask the RVBC again, as this is an ongoing cost for the council. ONGOING

ACTION – Cllr Birtwistle to follow up, again

Cllr Scholfield requested that the clerk check with EasyWeb to ask what happens to ex Cllr's email accounts. Are these archived and accessible? And request that old email accounts be deactivated after archiving them.

ONGOING -ACTION - CLERK

8.7 241211/15e – SLCC, LALC & CiLCA – the Council is fully supportive of training for councillors and the Clerk.

COMPLETED

9. VILLAGE UPKEEP

- Cllr. Scholfield provided a full written report

ACTON – TO NOTE THE REPORT

- Cllr Houghton gave verbal report on the coronation gardens project, a new notice board picture was shown to the council, and it was favourably received. The price is £1,700 to come out of the coronation Gardens Grant. Cllr Scholfield has the contact details for the notice board and will obtain a quote. This needs to be invoiced by the end of January. Cllr Birtwistle to ask RVBC if funds could be released on an invoice due to the amount.

ACTION – Cllr Scholfield to obtain a quote

ACTION – Cllr Birtwistle to check the Fund provider can release funds on an invoice

10. CHRISTMAS CELEBRATIONS

Cllr Houghton said the light switch on and carol singing was well attended and well received. £209 was raised for Darian House Charity. The council received a note of thanks.

11. Road Safety Group

Update from Cllr Scholfield – As there are new staff at LCC and new Parish Councillors the group is now stagnant.

12. Consideration for items not on the agenda

- A. FOREST OF BOWLAND NATIONAL LANDSCAPES – have asked the Council to nominate a councillor to engage in comments on the current plan. No councillors were nominated.

ACTION - TO NOTE THE REQUEST

- B. GDPR Email to RFO – a request for renewal of £40 annual fee has been requested by ICO, the clerk queried whether we should be paying a fee at all. Cllr Scholfield is under the impression that we must be members, and this comes with a fee.

ACTION – Clerk to investigate further

- C. Grants Query by Cllr Houghton – Made inquiries with RVBC and an email was sent out by RVBC with instructions on how to access and view grants.

COMPLETED

- D. Cllr Birtwistle informed the council

- Rural Prosperity fund will run again
- Brief discussion on the White Pater, well received by the council
- Jubilee fund is still available

ACTION – to note the report
